Hoodlums and Saloonmen Get Rev Jones into Trouble. ted Press Leased-wire Service.

SIOUX OFTY, Aug. 30.—Last Sunday Rev. S. G. Jones of the Methodist Church went to the river to baptise a number of new converts. Rev. Jones took along his robes for the baptismal ceremony and, arriving at the river bank, went away into the timber to don them. While he was gone hoodlums stole his clothes, teaving him in an embarrassing position. He was arrested on a warrant sworn out by s saloon-keeper, charging him with lewdness. The complainant alleges that he disrobe in plain view of his entire congregation in plain view of his entire congregation. The warrant was sent here, as the preacher was in the city attending a Sunday-school convention, and was arrested while the meetings were in progress. There is no doubt the action was the result of ill-will of the salcon-men whom he has been active in prosecuting. The church will take it up and make it warm for the prosecutors.

The Trust to Make a Fight Against an Increase.

Secolated Press Leased-wire Service PEORIA (III.,) Aug. 30.-Inquiry has confirmed the report that the Distilling Company would contest the increase in the tax on spirits in bond on the ground of illegality. It is learned that this has long been President Greenhut's idea, and he has been in favor of fighting on this Good legal authority has been secure for the argument that when the spirits were put in bond at 90 cents per gallon there was an implied contract that the tax would not be increased on those goods while they were in bond. A fight will be made on this line.

The Building conference appealed some time ago to the Board of Walking Delegates to take some steps looking toward the abolition of the system subopted by a great many con-tractors of employing materials produced by cheap or canviot labor. What is known as the 'Stalwart Democracy' there is running a side issue called a State ticket. Those Stalwarts are mostly politicians who are either holding office or ticians who are either movements are expecting office, and their movements are giving us but little concern. The rail-the Coxey movement and road strikes, the Coxey movement and the industrial upheaval generally have set the laboring men to thinking. The producing elements, who naturally belong to our ranks, have heretofore let the other fel-lows do their thinking for them. They are now beginning to think for themselves, and, although their circle of thought may be somewhat narrow, it will widen and produce grand results. There has been a little handful of us in Congress during the last two sessions, advocating labor rights and justice and manliness in labor rights and justice and manifiless in the administration of the government. We have not been able to do much, but it looks as if we would have more help in the next Congress. There will not then be big Democratic majority; indeed, a big Democratic majority: Indeed, I doubt much if any party will have a majority. I hope and expect that we will hold the balance of power. We can bar the road against trusts and plutocratic rascality. Sooner or later there must come a revolution in regard to the law-making newer.

"The shameful condition of the country and the masses of people today is the result of Republican policy for more than a generation, for building trusts, and especially-favored classes. The tariff bill is less to the liking of the Republicans than they wish to acknowledge. They expected either a free trade measure or none at all. But the bill as passed is so very near McKinleyism that they cannot find much reason or excuse for criticising it.

"Cleveland is not now the man he was when inaugurated. His first bad break was in calling an extra session to legis-late on silver. His next was in sending troops here to Chicago to be used by the troops here to Chicago to be used by the corporations and railroad magnates. That was one of the most dangerous steps ever taken by an officer of the government in its whole history. His next big mistake was his shilly-shally policy on the tariff. First he was standing by the Senate, and next he flung his weight over on the side of the House and then when the bill of the House, and then, when the bill passed, despite his protest, he sat down like a spoiled and sulky child and refused to sign it."

TH DEBUTTAL.

Testimony Before the Strike Commisioners Yesterday.

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—Contrary to expectation rebuttal testimony was heard to-day by the strike commission. S. C. Wade, an employee of the legal department of the Rock Island road, said much of the clockading of railroad tracks was the work of experienced railroad men.

W. R. Mooney, a Northern Pacific switchman of Blue Island, said Debs and Howard had not advised the men to strike. They had told the men to use their own judgment. He was discharged for alleged ac-tivity in the strike. Witness told of the fight at Blue Island on June 30, when 400 deputy marshals stood by and saw their hief, Logan, beaten by the crowd.

W. E. Guion, a reporter, was next called. He went over the incidents of the man. He saw the cars burning at Burn side. He found only three railroad men in the nearest crowd, which was three blocks away. The railroad men were trying to disperse the crowd. One of these men said the instructions from the A.R.U.
were to drive away all persons who might were to drive away all persons who might be inclined to damage property, and if they would not go, to cause their arrest. Debs and Howard afterward asked the witness if he could hold the order and cause the arrest of the men engaged in violence, but he told them he was not a detective. Vice-President Howard of the A.R.U.

vas again called to the stand. Howard was again called to the stand. Howard denied that he had advised violence and declared he had always counseled moderation and denounced lawlessness. His only remark of an "incendiary" character, he said, was the advice he had given the men to use the coupling-pins on A.P.A. men to use the coupling-plus of A.F.i.s.
representatives or any other class who might endeavor to stir up trouble in the union on a basis of difference in religion.
Howard then suggested the following questions should be put to the General Managers, one of whom he supposed would take the stand this afternoon:

"Did the strikers at any time interfere with your carrying mails, if Pullman cars were not attached to the same train? "Could you not at all times transport the mails without interruption, if you had not insisted upon attaching Pullman cars to the same train?

to the same train?
"Was your contract with the government to transport mails any less binding upon you than your contract with the Pullman Company, or was one contract in any sense made dependent upon the other?
"Did your company have, a contract with the government to transport the mails?

"Was your contract dependent upon you ability to transport Pullman cars?
"Did your contract with the Pullman Company provide that you should not carry the mails unless you took Pullman cars on the same train?"

Commissioner Kernan did not know that the commission would have opportunity to put the questions, but they were al lowed to go on record.

Howard also desired an investigation of Pullman's reported statement that the General Managers had threatened to boycott him if he consented to arbitrate with the A.R.U. He further said that the union would show by the testimony of Mayor Hopkins that the A.R.U. had been more ective than the General Managers in se

Secretary Keliher of the A.R.U. and Mayor Hopkins testified at the afternoon

Mayor Hopkins testified at some length egarding the attitude of the police during the strike. He declared they had done their duty at all times. He acknowledged he was in sympathy with the strikers and against Pullman as he had been an employee of the road and knew what an em ployee has to endure. Upon the matter of the message of Debs to the General Managers Association the Mayor said: "On July 23 Debs, Howard and Keliher of the A.R.U. called and presented a com-munication to the railway managers asking munication to the railway managers asking me to take it over to them. They asked that all men be taken back, not as members of the A.R.U., but as individuals except those who had committed violence during the strike. When I got there the board had adjourned and I handed it to Mr. St. John. Mr. St. John informed me they did not desire to receive any communications from that source, but would re of Chicago brought it. I say this in regard to Mr. Egan. The papers quoted him as saying that if he was the Mayor he would not allow himself to be a messenger boy. I want to say most emphatically that Mr. Egan never said it and I do not think I would have allowed him to say it." "We understand it has been stated in the press that you applied to Mr. Debs for permission to move certain things during the strike?" was asked. "That is not true, I'll give you m statement in regard to it. We have a a man named Brennock for removing dead animals. His place of rendering them is in Indiana some place. He called at my of-fice one day and stated that there was a train of dead animals down in the yards train of dead animals down in the yards and they were getting off size and he could not get them out. I sent my secretary over to the headquarters of the A.R.U. and they at once sent a crew down to pull them out, but when they went down to officials of the road they putter on a train loaded with meat and they pulled that a distance and found they were deceived and abandoned the train. After the Mayor had explained the deadhorse episode the commission adjourned to meet in Washington on September 26.

THE SAMOAN WAR.

Warshins Buzzard and Curacoa are Shelling the Natives. lated Press Leased-wire Service.

APIA (Samoa,) Aug. 15.—(Associated Press Correspondence, wired from San Francisco Aug. 30.) The warships of Great Britain and Germany have at last taken action, with a view to ending the native disturbances, which have heretofore appeared to be interminable. Two skirmishes had taken place between the warring tribes, resulting in the killing of eight or ten natives and the wounding of many more, and, besides, the natives had become so short of food, not having planted or looked after their crops, and they had taken to stealing from foreigners throughout the islands. Their mode of livng, too, had produced a great deal of illness, much suffering and many deaths so that, in the interests of common humanity, interference by the powers became absolutely necessary. Something had to be done to put a stop to the so-called warfare.

It was with this end in view that the onferences. The ultimate result was resolution to notify the rebels that they must disperse from their fortified strongfrom the guns of the warships. On Friday, August 10, the British warship Curacos and the German warship Buzzard left Apia for Latuanuu. Arrived there, the rebel chiefs were called on board the gunboats and informed that their stronghold would be bombarded at 9 o'clock on the following morning. During Friday night, lowever, the rebels evacuated the fort. On Saturday morning the fortifications were shelled by the warships, and all were destroyed. The King's warriors had been sent overland to co-operate with the gun-boats in the attack upon the rebels. When the bombarding gunners had finished their work, King Malietoa's warriors were signaled to advance and occupy the deserted Bfore the rebel warriors evacuated, they to all the huts in the vicinity, as well as their fort, the destruction of which the hombarders finished and de stroyed all the bread-fruit trees were growing near. The naval authorities again communicated with the rebel chiefs and ordered them to disperse and sur-render their rifles. Instead of obeying the mandate, however, the rebel band moved off toward Saluafata, which is less than ifteen miles from Apia, and it was decided to again advance upon them. On Sunday morning the rebels and the King's warriors, who numbered fully six hun-dred, came together at Lufliufi. The rebels made the attack and killed and wounded several of Malietoa's men. During all of Sunday there was desultory fighting and the naval commanders resolved to again attack the rebels and to deal with ther summarily.

Early on Monday morning, August 13, the Curacoa and Buzzard changed their positions and again opened fire upon the rebels, killing and wounding a large num-ber. Simultaneously the King's warriors attacked them on shore. In the fight the King lost six killed and several wounded. At this writing it is impossible to ascer-tain a reliable estimate of the rebel loss, but it is known to have been heavy. The guns on the warships did deadly execution. On Monday evening the rebels sued for peace. Their chiefs were or-dered to come on board the Curacoa on the following day. They obeyed the or-der and made promises of complete sub-mission to the King's rule, agreeing to pay their taxes, return to their homes and to deliver up one hundred rifles. Immediately after this meeting the Cu-

Immediately after this meeting the Curacoa steamed away toward Apia, believing that the trouble was over. The Curacoa's commander was eager to catch the mail steamer Mariposa that he might report the result of his operations to the British government. The Buzzard remained at the scene of the action to receive the rifles from the rebels and see that they carried out their promises. Great was the surprise of the commander of the Curacoa when, at midnight last night, the Buzzard signalled that Chief Tamasese, leader of the Aana rebels, had joined the Atua party with over four hundred Aana men and that these combined forces had attacked the King's warriors. Throughout the night the roar of the Buzzard's guns could be heard. This morning, the Cu-racoa got under way again and left for the scene of trouble. Capt. Gibson left determined to demand the complete sur-render of the rebels and unless the rebels render of the rebels and unless the rebels are submissive, the slaughter will undoubtedly be terrible, as his gunners will fire to kill. It is now certain that unless vigorous action is taken the position of the foreigners here will be critical.

At the hour of sailing of the Mariposa it is reported that the rebels have made a complete surrender, but the rumor lacks confirmation.

Under the Laws of Illinois a Separate Expense Fund May Be Maintained-Atty.-Gen. Maloney Refuses to Bring Suit.

ssociated Press Leased-wire Service CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—Atty.-Gen. Ms-loney, contrary to the opinion of Auditor Gore, has declared the Hilnois Building and Loan Association of Bloomington col-vent, and holds that it has a right to levy assessments upon stock for the ex-pense fund, and that all its transactions in this respect are lawful. The occasion for such a decigion arises from the dis-covery of a provision in the by-laws by Auditor Gore, while examining the books of the association, that it migh stock in force an assessment of 25 cents every quarter for the creation fund. He further found that by the open

As the assets are not in such a condition, the Auditor held the association to be insolvent and re heid the association to be snootvent and re-quested the Attorney-General to bring sult for forfeiture of its charter, Malaney, after an exhaustive research of the law relative to the subject, has written the Auditor a letter stating that he has care fully read the report of the auditor and ac companying papers and that he is con-vinced from careful examination that it is his plain duty to abstain from commonding proceedings against said association. Continuing, he says his understanding of sec. 16 and 17 of the Building and Homestead laws of this State is that the Legis-lature delegated to the Supervisor of Public Accounts supervisory authority. He recites that the course of the auditor is necessary to bring the ettention of the Attorney-General to the delinquent as-sociation, and says: "In my judgment the Attorney-General has no right or authority to review or question the action of the Auditor in so far as questions of fact are concerned, but where questions of law arise in a matter involved then it is his plain duty to look into them and if, in his judgment, the Auditor is mistaken in construing the law, the Autorney-General is not bound to follow said construction. respectfully call attention to the reas pelling me to disagree with you on chest

The Attorney-General then quotes extensively from charges made by Auditor Gore, and says: "It appears from your statements that, had the association been assessment, you would not see fit to to me, but, on the contrary, would have given it a clean bill of health. Now, if you are mistaken as to the law permit-ting the collection of said sum, then I take it that you ought not to comme

The Attorney-General, after citing the law of the association, providing for the expense, quotes sec. 6 of the Building and Home Association by-laws, proving "that every share of stock is subject to lien for the payment of unpaid installments and other charges incurred thereon under the provisions of the charter and by-laws, and the latter may prescribe the form and manner of enforcing such lien."

He continues: "I take it that the foregoing is, at least by implication, a recontion of the inherent power of such association to provide by law for the expense fund to be raised from shareholders. It cannot be denied that a reasonable expe cannot be denied that a reasonable expense fund and a proper charge against share of stock in an association of this kind is necessary, and I am not only convinced that the by-law, providing for an expense fund, is valid and strictly within the law, but is a wise and salutary thing when reasonably and providently dearn when reasonably and providently drawn Now, the delinquency charged against the association arises from what I think it had a right to do. Abbe Bruneau was awake when the Public Prosecutor, Examining Magistrate and other officials entered the cell this morning in order to inform him his last hour had arrived. Unasided, the condemned man donned the black trousers and then put on his shirt, stockings and shoes. When dressed Abbe Bruneau was led to the chapel of the prison, where representatives of the press were ulready seated. In pussing the holy-water font, Abbe dipped his fingers, knest and crossed himself fervently. He was then led to the elastir, where he prayed a few moments and sitterwards, with the prison chaplain, retired to a corner where the latter heard the prisoner's last confession, after which mass was celebrated, Abbe Bruneau following the prayers with great devotion.

After breakfast, the prisoner again communicated with his prison chaplain and asked that the clergy might pardon him for breaking the vows of chaskity. He then informed the attendants thit he was ready and showed great coolings until he arrived at the foot of the seaffold, when his fortitude seemed to desert him. Upon the guillotine platform Abbe Bruneau klased the crucilia, held up before him by the chaplain, murmured a short prayer with his eyes furned doward the sky and then, at a signal from Diebler, he was overturned upon the bascule, thus trapidit forward and, at shout 5:05 a.m., the knife fell and the prison's head dropped into the bascule. "At the time he left England," said Mrs. Scrivner, or Hesse, in the document filed at the County Clerk's office, "in order to disguise his identity he assumed the name of Scrivner, which is the maiden name of the plaintiff." And the woman went further with the information and told why the name was changed.

Leo Hesse was brought to Manchester from Germany by his parents when he was 8 years old. He received the training of a clerk in Manchester, and when he was a young man he received a salary of 1900 a year as buyer for a cotton manufacturing firm. He married on June 30, 1866, Miss Mary A. Sorivner, the woman who is now suing for divorce. For twenty years they lived at Manchester and there the four daughters were born. Finally Mrs. Hesse learned that her husband was supporting another woman and the revelation compelled the removal of the family to Hesse learned that her husband was sup-porting another woman and the revelation compelled the removal of the family to Oakland. As the woman left at Manches-ter showed an inclination to pursue and blackmail Hesse it was deemed best to cut loose entirely from old associations and to adopt the wife's family name of Scrivner. And so it happened that Man-chester never knew what had become of the Hesses, while Oakland received the Scrivners.

Scrivners.

The family came to California in 1887. Since that time Scrivner has traveled over the Pacific Coast for various firms, being most of the time away from home. Mrs. Scrivner and her daughters have resided at No. 1536 Broadway, and they have known little during the recent years of the commercial traveler's whereabouts or business affairs. One of the daughters is a music teacher and another is a dressmaker. Now the woman has renounced the assumed name of Scrivner, her own maiden name. She sues for divorce as Mrs. Mr. A. Hesse and to further somplicate the matter she will ask the court to make Scrivner her legal name. The daughters will continue to use the name by which the family has been known and wait for their mother to change her name. Mrs. Scrivner or Hesse is now staying with her married daughter in East Oakland. She has obtained a restraining order to prevent her husband from selling his property, which consists, principally of 2000 acres of Kern county land, several lots in Tulare and money invested in the San Francisco Building and Loan Association. The family came to California in 1887.

GRAINBAGS.

The New Tariff Will Partially Ben efit California Farmers.

Associated Press Leased-wire Seroica.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—It is estimated that free grain bags will mean a saving of $375,000 a year to California farmers. The new tariff went into effect too late this year to make much of a sav-ing, however. The annual demand for grain sacks is about 32,000,000, of which California uses 24,000,000. The importaproduced at San Quentin prison, and 2,000, 000 at the California jute mills. The lat-ter have now closed down, and it is claimed that its plant, valued at $250,000, has been rendered useless by the free im-portation of bags.

The average duty has been 1.55 cents per bag, and this will now be saved to the farmer. Since the emissioner of the new law, the price of bags has dropped from 6% cents to 5% cents.

A Salvation Army Man Killed on the Railroad Near Marcuse.

Railroad Near Marcuse.

MARCUSE, Aug. 30.—The engineer of the down passenger, which passes this place at 5 o'clock a.m., discovered the body of a man lying alongside the track about a mile north of here. His left leg was cut off close up; his head was entirely gone with the exception of the scalp, which still adheres to the body at the back of the neck. The deceased was apparently a tramp stealing a ride and it is supposed he was run over by a train going north last night.

INTERESTING FIGURES OF THE CENSUS OFFICE

Percentage of Farms and City Propenty Owned by the Families of the Country—The Incumbrances and Values.

Associated Press Leased-wire Service.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The census office gave to the public today the principal results of the investigation of farm and home proprietorship in all the States and Territories. This is the first investigation of the kind ever conducted in any country. Of the 12,269,125 families in the whole country, almost 48 per cent. own their farms and homes, and the rest hire. Of the families owning farms and homes, almost 28 per cent. have incumbrances and over 72 per cent. have no incumbrance. The number of resident owners of land in the United States is 6,006,417 to which must be added any land-owners. results of the investigation of farm home proprietorship in all the States who may be living in tenant families. The who may be living in tenant families. The farm families number 4,676,174, of which 66 per cept. own their farms and others hire. Of the owning families, over 28 per cent. have incumbrances on their farms.

Let there be no ex-hibition rather than to allow France to be insulted. Therefore, if there is then a flasco, the people of Quebec will know who to blame."

IS HE HENPECKED?

Sentiments in Favor of Mr. Vanderbilt.

Friends Say He Will Be Amply Vis dicated at the Proper

They Claim He Was Not Responsible for the Valiant's Cruise Ending - Another Neustadter Girl in New York.

Associated Press Leased-wire Service.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—There was some change today in the talk about the trouble change today in the talk about the trouble in the W. K. Vanderbilt family. Vanderbilt's friends have refrained from saying much so far, but they did not hesitate to say to day that when the truth is known he will be amply vind/cated. So far as can be learned from statements made to persons in the confidence of the Vanderbilt family, their sympathies are all with the husband. They hope the matter will be settled out of court. It is not a question of money. He is willing, it is said, to give his wife all the money one wants, but it insists upon retaining charge of the children.

Cornelius Vanderbilt, as the eldest son

Cornelius Vanderbilt, as the eldest a of the late William H., is assumed to the head of the family. His mother ic lines to his judgment in almost even thing affecting the Vanderbilt properti thing affecting the Vanderbilt properties. He watches with almost paternal care the wanderings of William K. Bver since the voyage of the Vallant was brought to such an abrupt termination he has been worried. The first touch of domestic trouble in the Vanderbilt family was about to be made public property and he seemed powerless to prevent it. Before Cornelius went to Chicago on Monday he talked with several driends in this city. He appeared to be very much worried.

or leave some of his friends. He consulted friends and was advised to discontinue the voyage. Since that time Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt have lived apart.

ANOTHER NETTIE NEUSTADTER. NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—The World this morning says that in the crush at the Casino last night was a handsome woman, who complained bitterly because the newspapers had published telegrams from San Francisco accusing her of intimacy with William K. Vanderbilt.

Her name before she was married was Nettle Cohen. Her husband procured a divorce from her under the name of Neusstadter. She lives now as Mrs. Nina. Allen, almost opposite the home of Chauncey M. Depew.

"These Western people have mixed me up with some other woman." she said to a reporter. "I never saw William K. Vanderbilt in my life. I do not want to see him. I have had trouble enough without that. I did live in San Francisco, and after some trouble with my husband I came to New York, because I saw better prospects here. It is nobody's business but my own what I am doing here, nor do I care to explain why I am living under an assumed name. I have just made a theatrical engagement, and if the publicity about this Vanderbilt case interferes with it then somebody will have to suffer for it."

This explanation straightens out one tangle in the Vanderbilt scandal. HER PORTLAND EXPLOITS. grain sacks is about 32,000,000, of which California uses 24,000,000. The importation has been about 26,000,000, and of the remaining 6,000,000, 4,000,000 have been produced at San Quantin prison, and 2,000.

The State Department Fails to Hear from the Minister.

Associated Press Leasad-wire Service.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The State Department has received no advices from Minister Baker in reference to the arrest of two American citizens at Bluefields. Two dispatches have been sent him by the department, the first notifying him that the report of the arrest had been received and the second on Wednesday morning giving him instructions. The instructions are intended to cover all contingencies and give the Minister authority to take action which may protect Americans. It is stated at the department that there is no necessity to supplement these instructions by anything more, as Mr. Baker has full power under those already sent.

Secretary Gresham is at a loss to understand why nothing has been received from Minister Baker and a third message has been sent which asks the Minister for a full report of the affair and what action he has taken. It has been intimated very strongly to the department that the arrests seem to have been unjustifiable and that the reports thus far received, though very meager, confirm this view. A response is expected from Minister Baker.

The San Francisco Examiner, which, ig the strike, distinguished itself its peculiar and objectionable at on that question, is not dis d, apparently, to profit by the riticisms which have been heard thout the State on its demaic policy, but continues to harp in same direction. SUGAR UNDER THE WILSON BILL.

A correspondent, on behalf of him self and others, asks what the differ ence is between the sugar duty under the new tariff bill and that which was in effect under the McKinley bill. Briefly stated, the McKinley law gave producers of sugar from beets, sorghum or cane grown in the United States, or from maple sap produced in the United States, a bounty of 1 3-4 or 2 cents per pound, according to the grade. The new law takes off the bounty and imposes a duty of 40 per cent., while under the McKinley law sugar was admitted free of duty. There are, however, a number of details in connection with the different grades of sugar. As this is a matter of interest to many of our readers, we reproduce from a recent issue of the San Francisco Chronicle the following statistical information. giving the following provisions o each law in regard to sugar. The figures in the first column refer to the old rate, while those in the second column show the rate under the Wilson bill, and the valuation given is per pound:

HAWAIIAN SUGAR

A report comes from Washington in the form of a dispatch to the Chicago Daily News, that the President has decided to terminate the Ha waijan reciprocity treaty, as he has power under the new tariff law to do after twelve months' notice. Buch action would be a serious injury to who stood so firmly for the Senate amend the sugar-producing interests of the ments, as "Republican fillbusters"?

little island republic. For many years-not far from twenty-we have had a reciprocity treaty with Hawaii, and under its provisions the sugar-producing indus try has grown to vast proportions in the islands. It is claimed that the reciprocity treaty "gives the sugar trust a great advantage." This claim seems hardly tenable, since the treaty permits the free importation of sugar from Hawaii, while imports from other countries must pay over 40 per cent, under the new tariff. Why may not importers who are independent of the sugar trust, if the treaty be continued, bring sugars into the United States from the islands, in competition with the trust? But, perhaps, Mr. Cleveland thinks his administration will need every penny of revenue it can get, and se must needs squeeze even poor little Hawaii; and, perhaps, Mr. Cleveland is right, looking at the question from this point of view.

administration, under the open ations of its new tariff law, is quite likely to find itself in much the same position as the boy who felt obliged to hold onto the polecat's tall, because his folks were "out of meat."

IRRIGATION VS. RAINMAKING

Frank Melbourne, who has acquired considerable notoriety as a "rain maker," committed suicide in Denver ast week. Perhaps he was disconso late over the failure of his rain-pro ducing methods. By the way, we do not hear much nowadays about these artificial systems of producing rain Instead of wasting time and money in this direction, it would be better for people to turn their attention to the subject of irrigation, as they are already doing in several sections of the United States besides California It is quite probable that the Irrigation Congress at Denver will mark the opening of a new era, as far as irrigation is concerned in the United States. Hitherto the Pacific Coas States and Territories have had to "go it alone" in dealing with the subject of irrigation, but the severe drought of this summer throughout the Western States has taught the people of that section a lesson which will undoubtedly bear fruit in the future. When the question of irrigating our arid lands is next brought before Congress we of the Pacific Coast shall find that we have a number of powerful friends at court.

The war news from Samoa this morning ndicates that at last the commanders of the English and German warships in thos waters have taken hold of the insurred tion with the earnest determination to bring order out of chaos. There was severe fighting from August 10 to Augus 12 in which the rebels were defeated with peace had been secured, as was sun sese, the firebrand, who, has for years accounts the warships were about to at tend to his case, and the rebellion has doubtless been effectually crushed out

From testimony heard yesterday by the Puliman Strike Commissioners, the fact was brought out that much of the block-ading of raffroad tracks in and near Chicago during the strike was necessarily done by experienced railroad men, being of such a nature that it could not have roading. This testimony utterly disprove the absurd claim so often set up on behalf of the strikers, to the effect that all the lawlessness was the work of "sympa themselves. Of course, everybody who had common sense knew this claim to be false, before its falsity had been established by

The Whisky Trust will contest the legality of the increased tax imposed under the new tariff. The ground of contest is that the spirits were put in bond at 90 cents per gallon, and that this fact constituted an amplied contract that the tax should not be increased while they were thus held in bond. If this contention be sound in the case of whisky, it is also equally sound in the case of some other chases of goods field in bond, upon which taxes or duties have been increased. The outcome of the Whisky Trust's suit will be watched with interest.

Railway freight raites in Australia are from 50 to 62 per cent. higher than in the United States, notwithstanding the fact that the roads are mostly owned and operated by the government. Here is an argument that is not likely to be used ver extensively by the advocates of govern-ment-owned railways in the United States.

There is some talk to the effect that certain candidates on the Democratic ticket of this State are to be asked by their party friends to retire because of their personal untiness. Such a request would be en-tirely superfluous. The whole Democratic ticket will be retired in November, if the Republican campaign be wisely conducted.

Senstor White is quoted in a special dis patch to the San Francisco Examiner as saying that, "if the Senate failed to do its duty, as has been charged, it was because of Republican filibusters." Does Mr. White regard Senator Gorman and his colleagues, Alice Shaw, the professional whistler, expresses the opinion that "whistling for half an hour after dinner is an excellent aid to digestion." This may be true, but sawing wood is equally as good for the digestion, and a great deal more useful.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Tidal Wave, appears to have lost the trail and got stranded somewhere, as he failed to arrive on the advertised schedule time. Santa Monica, Redondo and San Pedro still stand, and the prophet of evil has retired from the hotel piazza, discomfited.

It was confessedly a counterfest bill; yet both Houses passed it, and Cleveland allowed it to pass into law without his veto. The people, who have been made the victims of this confidence game, will be heard from later.

A report of the Pennsylvania Labo Bureau, just issued, shows that in not one of the recent strikes in that State have the strikers been successful. Tariff reform times make pretty hard sledding for strikers.

The McKinley law imposed a duty of 157.32 per cent. on firecrackers, while the new law fixes the duty at 50 per cent. Thus is a mighty burden of taxation lifted from the shoulders of Young Amer-

She has, unaided, made way with several score of valuable animals. She is Mary Hopkins, the daughter of a well-to-do Kansas farmer, and was at one time a belle of Leavenworth. She left home to become an outlaw, because her parents opposed her marriage to the man of her choice.

MUTILATED MEN. An Engine Explodes With Terrible Results

Press Leased-wire Service FERGUS PALLS (Minn.) Aug. 30.—The engine of Knudsen & Thorpe, who were threshing in Stony Brook, Grant county, the exploded today. Hank Knudsen, one of the owners, was the engineer. He was badly crushed. His father was firing. The top of his head was blown off. Thomas Anderson, aged 26, was feeding, seventy-five feet away, when a piece of the boiler went through his thigh, injuring him so that he died in four hours. Hans Thorpe was driving the water tank. He was badly scalded, but may survive. The cause of the explosion is not known.

Associated Press Leased-wire Service.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—M. Loring Mackaye, a son of the late Sizel Mackaye, the playwright, has brought scition in the Superior Court to recover $50,000 damages from his friend, Paul Latake, for the alleged allenation of the affections of his wife, Flora Louise Mackaye. Latake was arrested today upon an order issued by Judge MoAdam of the Superior Court, at the instance of Charles Batte. Ball was fixed at $3000, which was furnished.

This is the second wife of Mackaye, who is under 30 years of age. His first wife was Maud Miller, the only daughter of Joaquin Miller, 'The Poet of the Sierras.' Maud used to stay at the house of Steel Mackaye while she was in the city. One day young Mackaye and she ran off and were married. She had just come from the Convent of the Sacred Heart at Montreal, where she was educated. She got the impression that young Mackaye, who was a Protestant, had been haptized. When she learned to the contrary, she wrote to Mgr. Preston, asking if the marriage was valid. He said it was not. This letter caused much comment at the time.

The young woman left Mackaye soon after the marriage, on learning this. The marriage occurred February 4, 1885. On January 6, 1886, she married Louden McCormick, an actor and theatrical manager of Chicago, without a divorce from Mackaye. Mackaye subsequently got a divorce from her in this city. because of her Mackaye married Flora Louisa Cuttar in 1889. He had known Latiske a year before. The two men lived with their families in the same house in this city and on Staten Island, and were considered the best of friends. While Mrs. Mackaye was at Shirley, Mass., last June she wrote letters telling her husband that she no longer loved him. He became suspicious, and going to Shirley, last June, uppresided her, and he declares she made a full confession of all her relations with Latiske. Mackaye says Latiske splitted his wife away about six weeks 250. He does not know where she is. Mackaye has also sued his wife for an absolute divorce.

Young Denby had just graduated from Princeton, and was about beginning the study of iew. On his arrival he began to study Chinese, not only the vernacular of every-day speecch of the people, but the court language as well. Ten years of close study has made him one of the two or three Europeans in the diplomatic service who are proficient in both tongues. In fact, so well does he understand the court language that she American Legation does not require an interpreter. He is also very much a persona grata at the palace, as his father is. When President Harrison came into office, Li-Hung-Chang instructed the Chinese Minister here to say that the Emperor would be personally gratified if Col. Denby could be continued as American Minister at Pekin. Of course he remained.

If Charles Denby can be named as his father's successor, Col. Denby will probably resign next June. WAITE'S TRIAL.

Testimony to Show a Conspiracy Against Mrs. Likens.

Against Mrs. Likens.

DENVER, Aug. 30.—The hearing of the case against Gov. Watte, President Mullins, of the fire and police department, and Marton Kate Dwyer, charged with conspiracy in detaining a letter intended for ex-Police Matron Likens, was begun before United States Commissioner Hinsdale today.

Testimony was introduced to show a conspiracy to besmirch Mrs. Likens's character, in order to pave the way for her removal as matron. A letter to her from Jesse Parr of Pueblo, in answer to an advertisement for a position as housekeeper, was used for this purpose.

Ex-Matron Likens testified that the reason given by the police beard for her dismissal was economy. No opportunity was ever given her to explain the letter from Jesse Parr. She considered Parr's letter, an answer to the advertisement of Mrs. Ellen Harnett for a situation as cook or housekeeper, private and not official business.

Dist.-Atty. Johnson asked Mrs. Likens.

Dist.-Atty. Johnson asked Mrs. Likens to what party she belonged. Assistant Attorney-General Sales, who appeared for the defendants, objected. Johnson declared: "I expect to show that all the defendants are members of the Popullisarty; that the witness is a member of the Republican party, and that every effort was made to get her out of office. I expect to show that although this letter was addressed to Mrs. Likens, it was detained from her, was carried to the president of the board and was announced by him that it was the evidence upon which he could remove this witness."

he could remove this witness."
The commissioner sustained Sales's objection.

Jesse Parr, who wrote the note, testified that he did not intend it for any of the defendants, but for Mrs. Likens.

Mrs. Flora Frincke, formerly a house-keeper for Matron Dwyer, testified that Miss Dwyer over a year ago, in her presence, told Gov. Walte's private secretary that she would have Mrs. Likens's place if it took her a year to get it. Mrs. Frincke testified that Miss Dwyer discharged her because she refused to take a letter from Mrs. Likens's desk.

Friends of Mrs. Likens's desk.

Friends of Mrs. Likens's desk.

Friends of Mrs. Likens's testified that Matron Dwyer gave them to understand Mrs. Likens was removed because she was engaged in an immoral business.

Police Commissioner Barnes said President Mullins produced the Parr letter before the board, and declared it proved her to be an improper person for the office of matron. Barnes replied that the letter contained nothing derogatory to Mrs. Likens. She was never notified to appear in regard to the matter.

Johnson put in evidence President Mullins's letter to the Rocky Mountain News, in which he announced: "Should the very ardent defenders of Mrs. Likens desire further information as to the reasons why Mrs. Likens was chosen as the one to be sacrificed to reduce expenses in the department, they can obtain such information by calling upon the Fire and Police Board, who are reluctant to submit these matters to the public press."

Mullins denied having written that portion of the letter quoted, but acknowledged having attached his signature to it. A few more witnesses were examined, but gave unimportant testimony, after which the hearing was continued until tomorrow, when Gov. Waite will take the stand. His appearance and conduct throughout the day was that of a man at peace with the

The report which had been prepared by Assistant City Engineer Burr Bessell, was as follows:

"There is at at present a thirty-inch cement pipe had from the catch-basin on the west side of Pearl street, through the Park tract, to the intersection of Temple street and Fremont avenue, and terminating in a wooden well in Fremont avenue at a point 257 feet south of Temple ctreet. The well has an open wood grating or cover, which pennits the water to discharge into the street gutter. Before flowing out of this, however, the storm water is backed up in said pipe to a point about 140 feet from Fearl street, thus checking the velocity of the flow and causing the flood waters to deposit coarse and in the upper end of the pipe, choking it up, causing the street and property in that vicinity to be flooded in times of heavy rainfall."

The report went on to recommend that the pipe be extended to Diamond street and that it be thoroughly cleaned out; also that there be a catch-basin at the south-east corner of Temple street and Frement avenue. The report was referred to the Board of Public Works.

THE REGULAR WEEKLY MEETING OF THE BOARD.

A regular meeting of the Park Commission was held yesterday morning all the members except Hubbell being present. Superintendent Legrand reported that the water in the take in Hollenbeck Park had seeped into the sewer and run away. The escretary was instructed to communicate with the Council in regard to a remedy for the difficulty.

The Superintendent of Parks was instructed to prepare an estimate of cost of connecting suitable hydrants in each of the parks with the domestic water mains, and to place three such hydrants in Hollenbeck Park any way.

The secretary was instructed to communicate with the manager of the electric railway and see if arrangements cannot be made for putting electric lights in the boathouse at Westlake Park.

An offer was received from Fred Woods to give the department a number of fan palm trees on the Beaudry tract. A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Woods for his offer, but it was thought best not to accept ft, as it was considered very difficult to remove the trees without fatal injury to them.

The secretary reported having made a final settlement with Peter Kenan for the erection of the Westlake Park boathouse. A statement by Superintendent Legrand that Mrs. Hollenbeck had offered to build a reservoir in Hollenbeck Park at her own expense, provided she can take water from it for her own use, was referred to the secretary to ascertain more in detail regarding the proposition.

Applications of men wanting work were referred to the Superintendent. After the approval of the pay-roll and demands the board adjourned.

In conection with the saving to property-owners in the Maple-avenue district by having the proceedings started over again, as published in yesterday's Times, it should be stated that under the new proceedings there is not so much sewer to be built. This fact would, of course, detract a little from the showing made in the difference between the prices of the two bids accepted.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES.

A Tramp's Plea for Populism. LOS ANGELES, Aug. 80.—(To the Editor of The Times:) Will you give space in your esteemed paper for a few remarks by a tramp on the political situation, and why he thinks the people should vote the Popular of the political situation. list ticket?

Pay of U. S. Deputy Marshals.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 25.—(To the Editor of The Times:) If you would state in The Times of tomorrow when the money will be available for the payment of the United States deputy marshals, who were employed during the late strike, you would confer a favor. Many of these men are submitting to a 25 percent discount on account of the uncertainty, as they need money for their families. It is a disgrace to the government that its servants, who risked their lives in order to carry out its orders, and to preserve peace, and prevent riot, bloodshed and the destruction of property should of necessity be submitted to such exactions. A fine state of things truly, when the programment won't, or can't, pay its employees. Yours truly.

(United States officials in this city expect that funds, with which to pay deputy marshals who served during the strike, will arrive in the course of a few days.) Pay of U. S. Deputy Marshals.

Conscientious Stay-at-Homes. Conscientious Stay-at-Homes.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 30, 1894.—(To the Editor of The Times:) Your cartoon in this morning's issue calls attention to the fact that no small proportion of the electors refrain from voting at the primaries; while many of those who are the most active, and who never fail in attendance at caucus or primary are in politics not for the public welfare, but to serve their own selfah purposes.

ous or primary are in politics not for the public welfare, but to serve their own selfah purposes.

Let me explain why I for one, and I doubt not there are many others in the same category, cannot take part in a primary. My political principles are fixed, and I have no hesitation in saying to which of the great political parties my principles ally me, yet I am unable to agree with those professing the same principles and pledge myself to support the nominees of a convention for all offices. For any office I naturally prefer one of my own political stripe, provided he is a suitable man for the office, but I cannot bring myself to support an undesirable candidate myself to support an undesirable candidate for any office, especially one in which the question of politics is not of first consider-ation. Why should I support as a judge, ation. Why should I support as a judge, for example, a man of my own party, whose only qualification is his having allied himself to the same party, and why should I be debarred from giving my vote to one of the opposite party who, I know, is eminently qualified from his legal ability and unblemished character to satisfactorily perform the duties? And yet should I take part in a primary such would be my position, or I should have to violate the pledge required of me ere being permitted to record my vote for delegates to a convention.

be my position, or I should have to violate the pledge required of me ere being permitted to record my vote for delegates to a convention.

Such, sir, is my position. At the most important stage of all, my liberty of action is interfered with, and the only stage at which I am free to act is at the final poll, when, if it so happens that the selections made at the convention are tolerably good, I can unite with others of my party; but have the liberty to reject any whom I consider unsuitable, provided another party has nominated deserving candidates.

Perhaps from this you may think—some certainly will—that I am not true to my party; and yet I know that where politics are really the question at issue, as for President, a member of Congress, etc., I am prepared to swallow almost any nominee of the party, but I am unable to carry this into the offices, where the only question of qualification is, or ought to be, ability and honesty of purpose.

Am I alone in holding such views, or am I correct in surmising that others also are prevented by a similar cause from aiding in the selection of the best men to make party nominations? If I am one of a somewhat numerous class, surely there can be devised some plan whereby we may be enabled to participate in every step. Yours, etc., ELECTOR. (This letter is creditable to its writer's sense of propriety and particism. He construes, perhaps, too strictly the rule as to the party test for voters at primary elections. That list should not and does not bind the voter to support even one of the nominees, without exception, at the general election. A ticket with one, two or three bad names scratched off of it is still the party ticket, by any reasonable construction of language.—ED.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The Southern

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The Southern Development meeting was called to order in Willard's Hall by Hon. Samuel Blackwell of Alabama. Prayer was offered by Rev. Bagley, the chapiain of the House of Representatives.

Commissioner John W. Ross of the District of Columbia made an address of welcome, evoking applause by a reference to the new South, whose fine atmosphere, fertile lands, with coal and iron beneath the surface and abundant timber above the surface and abundant timber above it, was only awaiting the touch of capital, backed by courage and ability. He spoke of the bill introduced in the Senate by Senator Walsh of Georgia for a permanent exhibit of resources of the South, but questioned whether an exhibit of the resources in this connection, would be voted for by exhibit of resources of the South, but questioned whether an exhibit of the resources in this connection would be voted for by Congress, and thought a permanent exhibit of the resources of the entire country would be provided for by Congress, and the South would be the greatest beneficiary from such an exhibit.

In reply, Chairman Blackwell said the South had everything necessary for her development except money and muscles, as an area of prosperity was dawning, after the financial panic. Capital is realizing that it must look to the South. Organization was effected by the election of Samuel Blackwell as chairman, and T. L. Barrett of West Virginia as secretary.

A letter of S. M. Warren, president of the Washington Board of Trade, made an allusion to "Loud-mouthed Populists," who were injured by the South, but the reading of the letter was stopped on the remonstrance of a delegate, who said that politics were out of order.

All the Southern members present were admitted as delegates, and business men from other sections were admitted to seats on the floor. One vice-president from each State was elected on nomination of the State delegations.

from other sections were admitted to seads on the floor. One vice-president from each State was elected on nomination of the State delegations.

Mr. Charleston, one of the delegates from Florida, and secretary of the Disaton Land Company, read a letter from Hamilton Disaton of Philadelphia, which was in part as follows: "An important step to be taken is to convince the various railroad companies that it is to their interest, if not directly, certainly indirectly, to encourage by every means in their power immigration to the south. Low rates should be secured.

"As to the future of sugar-growing in the South, it is a broad subject to deal with. It is a vital question to the American people from a patriotic standpoint, as well as, in the Hight of individual enterprise. Why does this country import sugar to the enormous extent of $150,000,000 per annum? The American farmer is weary of low prices in the old staples of agriculture, brought about by overproduction, and has been tooking for new avenues into which he might direct his energies. The production of sugar upon southern lands has added for him one avenue of escape from his dilemma. He can enter upon that branch of agriculture with very little means. He may either purchase or lease the land, and always find a ready market for all the cane he can cultivate, the sugar mills being glad to relieve him of his product, and he can always depend on a handsome return for his labor.

"I venture to predict that it is a question of but a short time before we will supply the whole home demand for sugar, and see our farmer friends in a position of prosperity and contentment, which their present condition makes impossible for the stream of the supplement of the stream of the present condition makes impossible for the supplement of the supplement of the supplement of the supplement of the most of the supplement of the energy of the supplement of the whole home demand for sugar, and see our farmer friends in a position of prosperity and contentment, which their present condit

The afternoon was devoted to papers and addresses on the resources and prog-ress of the South.

KEPT BOARDERS. Astor Country Residence Utilized by a Gardener.

d Press Leased-wire Service. NEWPORT (R. I.,) Aug 30.—Mrs. William Astor, who lives at her beautiful country place, Beachwood, in Bellevue for several months each summer, was astonished a few days ago to learn that her trusted gardener, John Hammond, had been using the place in her absence all last winte as a boarding-house. When the story came to her she could hardly believe it, as a boarding-house. When the story came to her she could hardly believe it, for Hammond's father worked for the late William Astor years ago, and the son has almost grown up in the family. He was a member of the Common Council of Newport. When Mrs. Astor accused him, it is said he denied the story, but if that was so, it was of no avail with her, for she discharged him on the spot.

The trust imposed in Hammond made it particularly easy for him to carry his plan into execution. He and his wife-lived in the lodge in summer, but when Mrs. Astor left for town in the autumn they transferred their belongings to the house itself, where Mrs. Hammond entered upon the dutles of housekeeper. Hammond conceived the idea of making Beachwood a temporary boarding-house. He thought Mrs. Astor would not like to have the boarders sleep in her best rooms, so he chose all those in the rear of the house and fitted them out with cots. After evrything had been arranged John looked about him for boarders. There were carpenters and plasterers and other workmen who were employed in interior alterations in some of the big houses along Bellevue avanue. To these he went and told in glowing colors the life he could offer them at a country villa and, he said that it would not be very dear.

He advanced the argument that they would be much nearer to their work than they would all be there together. The picture was a pretty one to the carpenters and plasterers and Hammond had no difficulty in filling his fifteen cots. That it was a quiet boarding-house is established by the fact that throughout the win-it was a quiet boarding-house is established by the fact that throughout the winter nobody in the neighborhood guessed that Beachwood was a boarding-house. Even Mrs. Astor, who has been here all summer, has only just found it out.

The question whether the knights would sell liquor vias settled by a sight of their baggage today. There was on board everything in liquid, from beer to champagne. When one of the managers was asked if liquor was to be sold, he replied:

"Certainly. The bar privilege has been let, and we have as much right to sell liquor as any other excursion party. We do not think that the letter of Mgr. Sartolli in regard to the stand taken by Bishop Watterson had any reference whatever to this diocese. We think it was confined only to the diocese of Ohio. The mewspaper comment on this matter has been uncalled for."

They are new, they are choice styles, they are as we state them to be, the most elegant Black Dress Goods you ever saw for the money; nearly every one who has seen them says the same; they are way ahead of the ordinary in quality, sightliness and texture; when it comes to prices, they are unapproachable. Have you seen the sample line of Ladies' Muslin Underwear? no two garments alike; the prices fully one-third less than a regular line would be. Nightgowns, Chemises, Corset Covere. Drawers, Skirts, dozens of different styles and no two garments alike; not in the least soiled. They are all new and desirable, made from an extra quality of muslin and most elegantly trimmed; one-third less for this sample lot than the same qualities can be bought for in this city. Have you seen the new all-wool dress patterns for $4 the suit? they are extraordinary bargains and the choicest styles we have yet seen. They are all wool, small neat mixtures and will readily commend themselves to the ladies of taste who want a nice style at an inexpensive price. A few soiled handkerchiefs at about half price; just a few pairs of hose, they were 50c and 75c, now 25c. A little lot of Chemisettes for 5c, reduced from 25c. In a few days the store will take on its winter clothes and all the odd lots must go out before the arrival of the new. Sample nightgowns $1 for the $1.50 and $1.75 qualities; 75c for the $1 and $1.25 grades; good nightgowns as low as 40c; this takes the economy out of your work. Sample drawers as low as 20c, 24c, 35c, 40c, 50c, we always sell them for 50 per cent, more money. The muslin underwear samples are melting away under the increased buying. Only a day or two and the lot will be gone and you will be the loser. A few purses and pocketbooks go from 50c and 75c to 25c. A little lot of baby caps go out at half the regular price. Table linens that were 75c now 50c; they were $1 now 75c. All the fine napkins have been greatly reduced, the $5 goods go to $3.50, the $4.50 goods go to $3. We are closing out all the odds and ends at a big reduction in the selling price.

It is said that they produced a arge-sized "saok" soon after the voting segan, and used money freely whenever they could gain the slightest advantage. Soth sides, realizing that the fight of the county was concentrated in this ward, trained every nerve to win. Public orthrained every nerve to win. Public optim and disapproval of boss rule were

The Bighth Ward is celebrated far and wide for queer methods in politics and some very smooth work was done yesterday in the interest of the caucus ticket. The lattice bladly meeted any unusual pressure to carry it through, however, for the final footings of the tally dists showed a ratio of about four to one in its favor, as against a ticket prepared in the interest of Leslie D. There was the usual talk of coin being used, and but little attention was paid to the Great Register or the party afflictions of the voters so long as they voted the caucus ticket. As everything was run on a free-and-easy basis there was no serious trouble until just as the polis were closing, when Billy Manning in his seal to rush in Cline tickets, overstepped the bounds and was violently ejected from the window by Police Officer Davis, whose timely interference alone prevented a lively scrap.

The primaries all over the city passed off quietly and election-day arrests for drumkenness were few indeed. The general result was most satisfactory to those who are engaged in opposing ring practices and the stunning defeat received by Lindley in the Third Ward was received with rejoicing by all Republicans who are interested in remedying the evils of local politics.

The County. REPORTS FROM THE VARIOUS OUTSIDE PRECENCTS.

PASADENA, Aug. 30.—(Special Correspondence.) A hard fought battle at the Republican primary elections today re-sulted in a mixed victory. So much inter-est in an event of this kind has not been est in an event of this kind has not been shown here for a long time and the effect of good organization and hard work was shown in three of the four wards. As predicted in The Times' Pasadena column the First Ward was captured by Judge York's party by an overwhelming majority. The winning ticket, with the number of votes cast for each delegate is as follows: Herman Dyer, 131; W. S. Lacy, 130; W. H. Townsend, 130; F. P. Boynton, 132; F. E. Burnham, 126; Isaac Springer, 132; Rev. L. P. Crawford, 132. The other ticket nominated by the caucus was: J. B. Hughes, 58; J. S. Glasscock, 56; William R. Staats, 50; Henry Newby, 51; I. N. Sears, 51; Will H. Wakeley, 52; W. H. Hill, 52.

Downing, 155; J. J. Allen, 166. This was done against able opposition, as shown by the vote for the petition ticket: W. T. Clapp, 101; A. L. Hamilton, 102; Dr. C. A. Davis, 101; Herbert C. Brown, 99; J. W. Eyestone, 102; E. C. Griffith, 100; W. H. Dwight, 100; A. C. Hess, 99.

In the Fourth Ward there were three candidates who chanced to be upon both tickets, and the full value of the victory is not so certain. The winning ticket was in the main the one chosen by the caucus, and was as follows, the first three named being on both tickets: Oscar Freeman, 177; J. F. Church, 178; James Clarke, 175; J. O. Lowe, 98; T. Earley, 96; W. O. Swan, Jr., 95; C. A. Gardner, 93; W. B. Rowland, 97; T. J. Rigg, 98. The other ticket, leaving blank the names credited with the total on the above, was: James Clarke, —; S. O. MoGrew, 80; Frank S. Wallace, 84; J. F. Church, —; S. M. Munson, 78; G. A. Gibbs, 85; M. L. SANTA MONICA.

SANTA MONICA.

SANTA MONICA, Aug. 30.—(Special Correspondence.) The primaries here to-day occasioned no particular excitement. In the First Precinct there was no regular caucus called, but a ticket was put together Tuesday evening, comprising R. R. Harris, George W. Heimer, George B. Dexter and Levi Hare. When the polis opened a second ticket appeared, bearing the names of T. H. Wells, A. L. Forsythe, C. H. Hunting and G. H. de Garmo. There was considerable work done on both sides, but it was all of a good-natured sort, except that some criticism was heard at the name of De Garmo being used. He is, it is claimed, a Rediands man, who chances to be here temporarily only. In the second Precinct there was no organized opposition to the caucus ticket, but a second list was presented to the voters, in which the name of Z. H. Lowman took the place of J. J. Carrillo, Carriages were out in plenty, and a pretty close tab was kept upon the electors.

The following are the delegates elected: First Frecinct—T. H. Wells, A. L. Forsyth, C. H. Hunting, G. H. de Garmo; Second Precinct—W. T. Gillis, F. J. Rising, Roy Jones, W. S. Schee and Z. H. Lowman; Canyon, J. H. Dunsmore.

OTHER PRECINCTS. Pico Heights—John W. Francis, John T. Miller, John M. Mitten, John Dick. Thomas Gilbert and E. J. Crandall bolted the caucus ticket and put up an opposition, bu made no progress.

Capt. Cressey Explains.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 30.—(To the Editor of The Times:) Permit me to say to the Republicans of the Fourth Ward that the Republicans of the Fourth Ward that the use of my name on yesterday, at the primaries, on the so-called "Anti-Lindley, Anti-Ring Republican Ticket," was wholly without my knowledge or consent. I knew nothing whatever of said ticket until three hours before the polls were opened. This explanation is due from me, in view of the fact that I was chairman of the regular caucus last Tuesday evening, and hence was in honor bound to support the caucus nominees. Very respectfully,

A Personal Kick.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 30 .- (To the Edtor of The Times:) In your issue of August 30, under the caption of "A Vigorous Kick," a mossback, signing himself "Voter," is alarmed at the increased vote "Voter," is alarmed at the increased vote in the Twenty-first precinct. This "moss-back" member of the Board of Education was perfectly willing for this ticket to be a "go" provided his name was placed thereon; but when we consider that on the Briswalter tract and vicinity within two years at least three hundred families are added to this precinct, we found this "back number" too far behind the times to put his name on the ticket.

TENDERFOOT.

Repudiates Lindley. REDONDO BEACH, Aug. 30 .- (To the Editor of The Times:) I notice in an arti-cle of your issue of this morning that I am accredited with being one of the "notam accredited with being one of the "notable ones of the county comprising the Lindley ring," As you have publicly stated it, I now ask in justice to myself that you as publicly deny it.

Neither Mr. Lindley nor any other man has any sıring on me. I never went into a convention pledged to any man yet, and I never will if I know it. I am opposed to rings, slates and combinations of any kind, and my record as a Republican will,
I think, bear me out in this.

He said he was not a subject of the Austrian Emperor, but was a subject of the Kingdom of Hungary. Braun was an officer in the Hungarian army, and when told that he was considered an Austrian he was wild with rage. He employed Lawyer Abraham Levy to institute proceedings to compel the Naturalization Bureau to assue his papers. Levy made a motion before Judge Daly asking that "the Emperor of Austria" be stricken from the papers. He claimed that the autonomy of Austria and Hungary are distinct and separate, and that the King of Hungary was free to act over his domain. Judge Daly said he saw no reason for granting the motion, but he would insert in the paper the words "and particularly forswear allegiance to the King of Hungary, whose subject I am." "I do not think this nor any other court in the United States could be called upon to pass upon the complications of foreign powers," and Judge Daly, in denying the motion, upon the complications of foreign pow said Judge Daly, in denying the motion Braun would not sign the paper after the change suggested by Judge Daly had been made, and left the courtroom declar-ing that he would lay the matter before the Austrian Parliament.

Cattlemen Affected.

SAN ANTONIO (Tex.,) Aug. 30.—It is claimed by the cattlemen of Southwest Texas that the new tariff bill will result in serious injury to the cattle interests of this section. The duty is reduced from $10 per head to 20 per cent. ad valorem, and it is expected that at least 100,000 cattle will be brought into Texas from Mexico, within the next sixty days and, after being fattened, will be marketed in this country, thus forcing down prices.

A Woman Honored. WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Miss Alice Sanger, who was a stenographer at the White House during the Harrison administration, and who has assisted Mr. O'Brien, Mr. Cleveland's stenographer, under the present administration, has been transferred to the Postoffice Department. Miss Sanger is the only woman ever employed in the White House in a clerical capacity. She is now on leave of absence, traveling in the far West.

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.— The markets turned today after a weak opening and ended with zains all around. Talk of wheat for feed-ing, fair buying and liberal clearances firmed up wheat, and crop damage was the factor in corn. December wheat closed %c higher, Scatember corn %c higher, and September outs %c higher. Provisions also closed with moderate gains. Wheat opened rather easier on the continued free deliveries from the farmers in the Northwest. Cables reported foreign markets easier, but did not report any marked weakness. Trade was rather light for fifteen minutes, at from %c%c lower order than the current quichallons at the cosse of the previous session. At the end of fast time a few buying orders from the outside revealed the fact of a considerable local shortage among local scalpers. For awhile they jordied and crowded each other, sithough Farricage and Lee alsong others of that contingent had both hads up selling wheat. The buyers kept up the rush, however, until they had added 45s to the lowest.

(Cincinnati Times-Star, Aug. 22:) Judge Kumler's jury this morning, through Foreman G. W. McConn, returned a verdict setting aside the will of the late George Wilshire. The jury was out about two minutes after they were charged by the court. Judge C. H. Bates was the only witness this morning. He knew the deceased well and had been called by the defense. He had met him on the street a few months before his drath on June 16, 1890, and he looked well. Mr. Wilshire had called him "young man" and waved his hand at him in parting. As to his mental condition at the time of making his will on January 21 of the same year he was not so well-informed. Judge Bates was not asked many questions and the case was subtlitted without argument. Judge Kumler informed. Judge lists was not asset many questions and the case was submitted without argument. Judge Kumler referred to the provisions of the will in his charge and to the testimony and to the fact that the jury must bring in a werdlet according to the preponderance of the wildence. And they did so in short order. The plaintiff, Nathaniel Wilshire, became of age on June 5 last, and the suit to set aside the will was filed on June 16, just four years after the death of the deceased on June 16, 1890. The widow, who did not elect to take under the will, has already received her dower interest. A distribution to the amount of $500,000 took place when the plaintiff became of age. There is now about $600,000 to distribute among the five heirs. There are ten minors with contingent interest in the estate.

The direct heirs, William Wilshire of San Francisco, H. G. Wilshire of London, Eng., and Mrs. Charles Carpenter of Los Angeles, Cal., field answers joining in the prayer of the petition. The property consists not only of much real setate in this city, Chicago and the West, but of valuable holdings in stocks. The distribution, which will now be made, is satisfactory to all concerned. Under the peculiar provisions of the will the heirs would not have received all their share of the estate until 1908, or for nine years yet.

SANTA MONIOA, Aug. 30.—(Special Correspondence.) If the tidal wave does not overtake and ingulf this correspondence, you may know from it that the disaster failed to keep its date, and that the city by the sea is still out of water and doing business at the old stand. There was an excessively high tide this morning, whose wash wetted sands have been dry for weeks; but if this was not the promised tidal wave, the latter failed in its appearance, and if it was it was harmless.

The tented field at Eleventh, Oregon and Utah is once more a bare mess, the last bugle having assembled the last buecoat, and the last man having marched, away, his mind full of, tender memories of the girl he left behind him. This closes Sants Monica's military series for the season. As currently remarked here, we had first, the old soldier, then the real soldier, and finally the tin soldier. But Santa Monica enjoyed them all, and they seemed to enjoy Santa Monica. The last contingent, militat though it was, had good stiff hait, "It is just what we were in '61," said an old veteran, one day, as a bunch of the boys went down street with imartial tread. "There's the making of good soldiers in the camp, in occasion requires, which God grant at never may."

The vet was right. The boys conducted themselves here like gentlemen, and our citizens regretted their departure. Everyone hopes that they will come again mest.

thoughtfully had prepared an ordinance to that end which they desired adopted. The ordinance was ingeniously drawn, estensibly for the purpose of securing, whichout the knowledge of the board, an advantage that would prove invaluable, for the draft of the ordinance presented read for "the exclusive right and privilege to lay down and mainindin gas pipes and conduits in the public streets, alleys and shoroughfaces of the city of Riverside." It took the Trustees gearcely more than no time to jump-upon the draft and scratch out the "exclusive" part of the franchise. The paper was then turned over to, the City Attorney for examination, to pass usen the legality of the paper as drawn, to be then regularly presented at a subsequent

PREPARING FOR THE ESTEE RECEPTION.

An Enthusiastic Meeting of Orange County Republicans—Santa Ana School Bonds Declared

SANTA ANA, Aug. 30.—(Special Correspondence.) There was another enthusiastic meeting of the Orange County Republican Club Wednesday evening in G.A.R. Hall, at which preliminary steps were taken toward arranging for the reception and entertainment of Hon. M. M. Estee Tuesday evening, September 11. This is the data that has been set for Mr. Estee to open the campaign in Orange county, and the Republicans propose to make it a red-letter day in the history of the campaign. G.A.R. Hall was crowded last night with enthusiastic Republicans from the mountain fastnesses of Trabuca Canyon and the classic shades of Tomato Springs to the Alachites plains, and from San Juan-by-the-Sea to Coyote Creek. Extra seats had to be provided for the accommodation of those who arrived a few moments after the meeting was called to order, at which time tile chairman of the meeting took occasion to say that a larger hall would be secured just as soon as the one now used proved to be too small for the use of the club.

After the opening routine was concluded the following set of resolutions were read and unanimously adopted: "Resolved, that the Republicans of Orange county, recognizing the importance of organization, and the dignity and honor of American cittrenship, recommend the establishment of Republican clubs throughout the county which shall favor clean politics and denotuce ring-rule or bossiam of every description.

"Resolved, that we appeal to all true men who wish to see the best men placed upon the Republican county licket at the coming convention, and elected in November, to refrain from all pledges to prospective candidates and alliances of every character prior to the county convention, and elected in November, to refrain from all pledges to prospective candidates and alliances of every character prior to the county convention who are untrammed, and whose chief interest is the selection of good and true men for offices of honor or trust within the gift of the people."

THE RAILROADS.

A Small Washout on the Santa Fe-Personals.

A cloudburst in the mountains in San small pieces of track on the Santa Fe, between Oro Grande and Point of Rocks, about 110 miles from this city. The over-land, which left this city at 9:30 o'clock land, which left this city at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, carried General Manager Wade, Engineer Fred Perris and Superintendent Beamer, who were going over to Barstow, where a "Y" is being put in, and when the scene, of the washouts was reached they at once took charge of things and, getting the section gang to work, proceeded to rush repairs. Fortunately, none of the breaks were large ones, and, after about three and a half hours' hard work, the track was in condition for travel, and the overland proceeded on its way, after a detention of but three and a half hours. The passengers knew nothing of the delay until yesterday morning.

Dramatic Treat at Rosedale

"The Settler's Daughter," a pretty little play, dramatized by a young actor, Frank Drew, was presented to a large audience in Poulk's Operahouse, at Rosedale, Wednesday evening.

The acting in general was of an inferior order, but was relieved by the efforts of the dramatist who showed no little ability, both as the hero and as a specialist. Tellar Armeul, as Louis Foi, also showed great skill in the unenviable role of villain.
